

Georgetown International Kite and Culture Festival

April 16-17, 2011

Cardome Centre - Georgetown, Kentucky

Saturday 12:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m.

Sunday 12:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m.

Please read the following carefully regarding this year's event.

SECTION I General Rules and Regulations (reverse side)

(This section applies to all participants in all areas of the festival and any representatives that you may have working with you or your organization)

VENDOR – Food, Culture, Kite and Kentucky Heritage Theme – Cover Sheet

1. ALL participants are screened by the Executive Festival Committee and/or the full festival advisory committee and we reserve the right to reject any vendor for any reason
2. NEW Vendors: We require a photograph of your setup and items for sale; this must be submitted and required to submit a Participant Logistic Form.
3. ALL non-food items must reflect a culture, kite or Kentucky Heritage Theme. NO EXCEPTIONS
4. NO FLEA MARKET ITEMS. We expect all items to be either hand-made or of a juried quality.
5. ONE Vendor per booth (10 x 10 Space). (VENDOR is responsible for their own tent, tables/chairs.) Electric and water limited availability; must be requested at the time of booking a booth space and appear on your Festival Contract.
6. ALL Vendor information will be sent to the IRS/State of Kentucky
7. FOOD Vendors MUST supply a menu, so there is no competition on menu items (as we want all vendors to make money). Must be submitted prior to confirmation of booth space and no change of food items during the festival.
8. FOOD Vendors, Please try and sell items that do not have a high food cost. We want you to make money
9. FOOD Vendors, We ask that you try to serve festival type food that would be popular in the country that you are representing. The American Food Vendors are currently limited until more growth is established.
10. FOOD Vendors: Requirements for confirmation: Festival Contract with menu, logistics and a Scott County Health Permit. (Please refer to General Rules/Regulations for specific contact information)